5th Sunday of the Year – page 135

Dear Parishioners,

Simon Peter and his companions were professional fishermen. They knew the best times and the best places to go fishing but, after being out fishing all night long, they had caught nothing. When Jesus suggested that they put out into the deep for a catch, Peter offered a half-hearted protest before accepting the invitation. The result was a massive haul of fish, prompting Simon Peter to recognise his unworthiness. There are times when we think that we know best about how to lead our lives. That episode reminds us that our openness to the Lord's guidance can help us to do even better things. We need the courage to 'put out into the deep' – to go beyond our comfort zone – so that we can allow God's grace to work more effectively in our lives.

May God bless you all,

Fr John Dermody.
